

McLaren “Mac” Stinchfield Day Proclamation

Whereas: Mac Stinchfield has provided leadership and support to many activities and groups in the City of Condon and surrounding community over many decades;

Whereas: Mac Stinchfield has attended hours of public meetings to report for the community, including approximately 500 Condon City Council meetings;

Whereas: Mac Stinchfield has maintained professionalism and reported fairly and accurately more than 40 years of Condon activities,

Whereas: Mac Stinchfield is known for his historical knowledge of all things Condon and Gilliam County – printable and otherwise;

Whereas: Mac Stinchfield has been a volunteer to the Condon Chamber of Commerce, BPOE 1869, United Church of Christ, Condon Volunteer Fire Department, Pioneer Community Development Corporation, Eastern Oregon Pioneer Association, Oregon Historical Society, Kiwanis Club, Oregon Geographic Names Board, Slow Walt’s Cookers, Condon’s Men’s Choir, and founder of the annual Robert Burns Celebration;

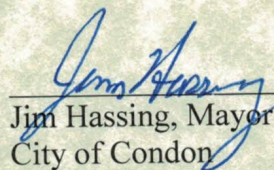

Whereas: The City of Condon and its residents recognize and appreciate the loyalty and friendship of Mac Stinchfield to the citizens of this community,

Whereas: Mac Stinchfield is celebrating his 70th birthday on this day and more than 40 years as editor, writer, owner and reporter of The Times-Journal;

NOW, therefore, I, Jim Hassing, Mayor of Condon proclaim January 3, 2018 to be in Condon, Oregon, and call upon all to honor this good man.

McLaren “Mac” Stinchfield Day

Jim Hassing, Mayor
City of Condon

Date